COMMENT: In a Globalized World economies help each other, but they also harm each other because of national politics and the constant pursue of sovereignty. And unfortunately the case for our Planet seems to be the worse: Countries are fighting each other and that has a cost. That creates DEBT. Furthermore, a corrupt government places the entire country on DEBT as well. The greed of a few causes impact on the many. So now we have 48 countries representing 3.3 BILLION people (almost half) immersed in DEBT. What now?
