MARKET FACT #17

44%

of workers' core SKILL are expected to change in the next 5 years

DATE: August 16, 2023

COMMENT: The next 5 YEARS WILL CAUSE a MASSIVE shift in the job market. Thanks to A.I., there are around 83 MILLION jobs (worldwide) that will be lost because of it. Some say that about 69 million jobs will be created in return, still leaving 14 million jobs that will simply cease to exist in Global Markets. However, technology throughout the history didn't replace jobs, but made the market smaller in terms of number of jobs and harder to enter + harder to make a decent living because of the level of knowledge. Hence why, mass unemployment is what is coming and not simply just mass disruption. Monopolies also add to the cause for why mass unemployment is the future. Because there's a harder and harder barrier for doing business legally, thanks to alliances involving Monopolies + Criminal Governments. There are just between 644 and 997 million knowledge workers globally. That's 20-30% of employment.
