new jobs were created globally by startups of the Netherlands.

DATE: January 8, 2024

COMMENT: Although we all are under a Global Financial Crisis, some good news is always good to reinforce. The Netherlands created 256,000 new jobs globally and 151,000 jobs just in 50 cities of the country. Another great metric is the following: “Companies with teams of up to 50 people provided 57,000 jobs, accounting for 57% of the total Dutch startup employment. Unicorns only represented 12% of all opportunities.....Interestingly, a quarter of all open positions at Dutch startups were for developer roles — compared to only 14% globally. Nevertheless, over 70% of openings in tech startups were for non-tech roles, including positions in sales and marketing.” – SOURCE: The Next Web. Interesting how the market is fighting back in a Global Financial Crisis. Go Dutch!
