MARKET FACT #195

5K

corporate jobs are being cut off by CVS Health in a move to reprioritize healthcare investments.

DATE: January 12, 2024

COMMENT: More layoffs? Oh yes baby. It's my duty and obligation to help you map The Global Market as much as possible, and whenever people lose jobs in a large scale, it's because there's something sick with the market. Rival to CVS, Walgreens planned to cut 10% of its Corporate Workers around May 2023 which shows that this is not a solo strategic move done by CVS. No. This is a way to REACT against a brutal Global Financial Crisis that has been invading the business world and people's lives since at least 2019. Here's more: "In addition to the layoffs, the company is cracking down on travel expenses and its use of consultants and vendors". – SOURCE: Fierce Healthcare. Time to wake up!
