MARKET FACT #264

1K

employees were laid off at YAHOO!
In February, 2023. One more piece of the massive layoffs puzzle.

DATE: February 28, 2024

COMMENT: This is more unfortunate evidence showing where Markets are really going. When you put "all" the recent massive layoffs combined, it's hard to avoid the truth: The Global Financial Crisis is exploding. But here's Yahoo's perspective: "The company is 'very profitable,' Lanzone said, adding that the job cuts were due more to the division's restructuring than troubles in the ad market. 'We would've made these changes even at the peak of the market,' he said. Yahoo is 'still hiring aggressively,' Lanzone said." – SOURCE: Fortune. Definitely a partial truth as even monopolies like Google and Facebook are firing because monopolies themselves are fighting each other in this huge financial crisis.
