COMMENT: Despite the headline of the video in question (the source) saying that the chinese debt trap is a MYTH, here I say otherwise. As the video says, China has invested around 340 BILLION dollars in Africa alone, and that number can't be that big from a communist country (that lies in its data) without any international-grade communist, and sometimes, MILITARY goals. Remember its ever-evolving military tech lately? And how much China upped its spending in the military as well? Make no mistake. China has been weaponizing capital.
