Starlink SATELLITES is how many Satellites are in orbit right now by the company. Active satellites number totals over 12,900.

DATE: September 17, 2024

COMMENT: It's impressive how ONE True Entrepreneur can provide to World Markets alone. Like reported by Perplexity.AI, almost HALF of satellites in orbit today in 2024 are from Starlink." This represents 47% of the total operational satellite population in orbit nowadays. Another point worth reporting is that SpaceX added brand new 853 new satellites in the 1st FIVE months of 2024, something possible thanks to Falcon 9 reusable rockets.
