COMMENT: Boy it's good to bring once again more GOOD NEWS in a decaying world where there are many crises to solve. But good fighters are here to prove that there's hope in mankind. Here's more: "Fast-forward to 2016, and Kamikatsu was recycling roughly 80% of its trash — about 60% higher than the national average. Integral to this feat is the Zero Waste Center, a unique recycling hub where residents can sort their refuse into 45 categories for reuse, recycling, or disposal.". – SOURCE: Nice News. PS: 1,5k is the entire town's population.
