MARKET FACT #364

4.5x

(MILLION) faster than the average home internet is what researchers at England managed to achieve in a new tech milestone.

DATE: September 20, 2024

COMMENT: Because progress is something we all need to cheer up (especially when it comes to our beloved Internet – the FREE space we all love –) this is another data point worth publishing. And a final point: “It is also a ‘greener solution’ than deploying more, newer fibers and cables since it makes greater use of the existing deployed fiber network, increasing its capacity to carry data and prolonging its useful life & commercial value.”. – SOURCE: Great Big Story.
