COMMENT: Those who have been following the Market since at least 2017 have been noticing a surge in subjects like WWII. In a world where money can be weaponized, and war-like strategies became more complex due to the advancements of Technology + Globalization, the causes for the next World War must be mapped so we can all work together and prevent casualties. Remember the level of power: NATO has 31 countries (as of 2023) and BRICS only 5. NATO has 45% of world GDP and BRICS a bit more than 31%. Key stats.
