14K

patents related to EVs Power trains belong to China already in 2023.

While in 2nd, The United States has just 4000K patents.

DATE: November 20, 2023

COMMENT: The progress involving EVs is a war for getting 1st place and China is ahead of capitalist nations themselves (!). South Korea follows the United States with a little over 3500K patents, and the European Patent Office with a little over 2000K patents. Finally, Japan places 5th place with a little more than 2000K patents for EVs power trains. China is making some of the best, cost-effective, most technological advanced electric vehicles on The Planet because of these factors and many others.
